Some very interesting letters from correspondents on matters educational and political will be found on the fourth page.

Consul Vossion, yesterday entertained the commander and officers of the Duguay-Trouin at a dinner given at the Hawaiian Hotel. His Lordship the Bishop of Papeete and the Portuguese Charge d'Affair, Mr. Canavaro were among the invited guests.

The Hotel billiard rooms and bar were largely patronized last evening, and the unanimous verdict was that the St. Louis Anheuser-Busch beer was tip top in those pretty little mugs. Two for a quarter and lunch thrown in was a surprise to many.

The Chief Justice did not visit either the Austrian nor the French men-of-war during their stay in port. Msgr. Roper, Bishop of Papeete visited each of the vessels and was received with the honors due his position as the representative head of the Roman Catholic religion in Hawaii.

Those Buffalos.

We must again remind the public that if the Buffalos of the American Continent are now principally to be found on reservations alone, there is still a Buffalo or two left on exhibition in Honolulu. Of course, we refer to the Buffalo beer just introduced at the Royal Annex, the Royal, Pacific and Cosmopolitan Saloons. It will be found extremely palatable and up to the most refined taste. The system of interchangeable checks still continues, and those issued for the celebrated what are equally valid. Taste and see how good it is.

A Lucky Kid.

On the morning after the S. S. Australia's last departure for the Coast, THE INDEPENDENT published an amusing story about a practical joke played upon his Sans Souci guests by George Lyeurgus. In brief a white kid, from the Punch-bowl hill slopes, was interred in a basket of fragrant flowers and a silver bell tied around its neck. It was placed in the cabin of the quondam guests.

The steamer had scarcely passed out of all opportunity of communicating with the shore, before the little one's plaintive cry of "baa-baa" for mother's milk, attracted the attention of one of the young ladies of the party. It was carefully tended and brought up by hand, or rather by bottle, and became a prime pet of all.

With all due ceremony it received the name of "Dicky" in honor of one of the party, and became even more a favorite with all on board from its skittish and kiddish spirit and playful actions.

It was deemed advisable by some that "Dicky" should temporarily pass from life to death before passing through the Golden Gate. Consequently he was properly interred in a certain sanctum, and with most elaborate ceremonies the casket supposed to contain his Punchbowl hill remains were consigned to the vasty deep outside of the Efarallones.

Such, at least, was the news brought by the City of Peking. Happily for "Dicky," the Australia brought a happier tale. His little kidship declined to die at sea, and is now enjoying rustic life on one of the prettiest ranches in California, and for a wonder no longer sighs for Hawaiian breezes but he thanks his preservers for preventing his confiscation.

Maui in Line.

A correspondent writes to us from Maui that upon the receipt of the sad news of the death of Joseph Nawahi, a mass meeting was called. Messrs. W. H. Cornwell, John Richardson, and Mr. Thomas Clark had charge of the meeting, which was held at the skating rink and presided over by Mr. Richardson.

Mr. B. Lyons acted as secretary, and addresses were made to the large assembly by Revs. Nawahine and Kapu and by Messrs. Richardson and Clark.

Resolutions of condolence were passed and Messrs. Thomas Clark, M. C. Ross, and Robert Nawahine were appointed a committee to proceed to Hilo and there present a handsomely engrossed copy of the resolutions of condolence to the bereaved widow and the sons.

Floral offerings in great quantities had been arranged and it was intended to decorate the casket of the late patriot with the last love tokens of Maui. The change in the program in Honolulu made this impossible. The committee went to Hilo by the Kinau and would be in Hilo in time to join in the reception of the body of Nawahi.

The Hawaii arrived at Lahaina on the 1st inst., flying her colors at half mast. A large number of prominent citizens boarded her to pay their respects and express their sympathy with the widow.

Genuine sorrow is felt among the loyal citizens of Maui in the national loss caused through the death of Joseph Nawahi.

WATERFRONT WHISPERS.

The steamer W. G. Hall arrived at 4:30 this morning with 2780 bags H. sugar and 2560 bags marked H. A. Co. The Irwin lot will be put aboard the Australia, and that of C. Brewer & Co. is being shipped on to barkentine S. G. Wilder for San Francisco.

Mr. W. H. Hoogs, the Hawaiian coffee king, returned by the Hall after a very pleasant vacation and loaded with profuse statistics and information on the outlook of coffee on Hawaii.

The steamer Keauhou is expected to-morrow morning with a full load of H. A. Co. sugar for the bark Martha Davis.

The steamer Lehua arrived last night at 10 o'clock with a light freight consisting of 48 bags Olowalu sugar and 35 head of cattle.

The steamer J. A. Cummins left port at 7:30 a. m. to-day with a load of machinery for the Waimanalo Plantation.

The Australia's outward cargo will consist of about 10,000 bags sugar, 5000 bags rice and about 4000 bunches bananas. The H. B. D. Company are the largest shippers of island fruit as usual.

Mr. Thomas, assistant clerk to Purser McCombe of the Australia, has his hands full attending to the various shipments of precious fruit and bananas in particular. To-day and to-morrow, Thomas will be kept on a steady jump with the usual result that everything will result O. K.

Around the Oceanic dock and in the Customs are seen some new faces. Several natives have received appointments as guards since the first. The reduction of wages of the C. H. employees is denied.

Chief Officer Lawless of the Australia disclaims all honors as a marine artist "in ink." The sketch of the wreck Gainsborough appearing in the San Francisco Call of last month and credited to him is not his. To satisfy our inquisitive marine reporter the genial officer took a small block of wood and a pencil. With the finest touch he drew a striking picture of the derelict as she now lies on the rocks beyond Diamond Head. With the consent of Mr. Lawless the block may be presented and placed if possible in the Bishop Museum.

A Visit to a Studio.

A reporter of THE INDEPENDENT spent a very pleasant quarter of an hour in Hugo Fisher's studio this morning. The first work of the artist's to be noticed was the large picture of the Waikiki beach for Mr. Peacock. Mr. Fisher has most happily caught the very expression of the scenery and tone of color that Hawaiians so much love. It is an artistic work of great merit, and will undoubtedly be much appreciated by its owner for its fidelity in reproduction of one of our most beautiful spots.

In several of Mr. Fisher's half completed pictures, and in his field sketches, the same fidelity to nature was observed. He has gone out into fields hitherto unnoticed by our temporarily visiting artists and reproduced Hawaiian scenery and life in a manner not only equal to his genius and talent, but extremely valuable to all who desire, from the distance, to see Hawaii-nee and its beauty spots as they really are. As a colorist he is accurate and painstaking, and some of his effects, take sunrise at Coconut Island, Hilo, for instance, is striking as true. Fortunately he does not sacrifice truth for effect, although he embodies the poet's dream with the artist's eye and hand.

Capt. McCarthy has his special brew of oyster cocktails on hand. Charley A. and Pete O'S. will rival each other in fixtures.

At the Empire you can select your beers from the Seattle, National or half and half, with the standard brands of other liquors maintained to the satisfaction of all friends.

At the Pacific, Royal and Cosmopolitan saloons you obtain interchangeable checks for the famous Pabst Milwaukee beer on draft. This is a great convenience to patrons.

W. W. DIMOND'S

Novelties in household goods draw customers to the up-to-date stores; their presence on the shelves is an indication of push and energy combined with enterprise, the foundation to every successful business house. We find pleasure and profit in getting out of the old rut and bringing a few sunshine novelties into the store.

One of the woes of the average housekeeper lies in the can used to hold kerosene for the lamps. Frequently she finds the floor discolored by grease spots and disgust follows. One of our new Globe oil cans will obviate this and for very little money.

Crown fryers are as well known in the States as Crown bakers, nearly everyone whose stove has not a broiler attachment uses one because the result is practically the same. They are exclusive with us.

In the warm weather (and that means nearly all the year 'round with us), nothing is so refreshing as an ice cream or a sherbet. The Lightning Freezer excels all others in the making of these delicacies. We sell this in preference to any other.

After your dessert a cup of delicious coffee is almost necessary—you know what muggy coffee is? By the use of a Princess coffee pot the coffee is absolutely clear and free from grounds. When the berries are ground in an Enterprise mill such as we sell and cooked in a "Princess" nothing can be better.

You've read about chafing dishes, possibly owned one; those made of Aluminium such as we offer are the best, and in the end the cheapest.
